

KAMANEFF BREAKS HIS SILENCE NOW

By BARBARA DEPORTE
[STAFF CORRESPONDENT L. N. SERVICE]
LONDON, Aug. 18.—Breaking the pledge of silence which was imposed upon him by the British government, M. Kamaneff, head of the Bolshevik trade mission, today gave an exclusive interview in which he made the prediction that Russians eventually will capture Warsaw and defeat Gen. Wrangel, whose de facto government in Southern Russia has just been recognized by France.

"Soviet Russia cannot be beaten," declared the Bolshevik official. "We will take Warsaw. There is no doubt in my mind on that, we are not afraid of the allies intervening. They supported Admiral Kolchak and he was beaten. They supported Gen. Denikin and he failed. Even if they support Gen. Wrangel he will be beaten. It would be much better for the allies if peace were signed now."

Kamaneff refused to clarify this veiled threat. Upon being asked if the Russians were determined to "sovietize" Poland, M. Kamaneff made dental, adding:

"If the Polish people want a revolution we would be glad to see it, but we would wash our hands of it."

Asked if Moscow were urging the Polish workers to rise M. Kamaneff merely shrugged his shoulders and smiled.

The Russian official was asked to explain the "Warsaw-Rantank corridor clause of the Russian terms to Poland."

"We do not want the corridor," declared M. Kamaneff.

He refused to discuss this issue further, but intimated that the Russian demand for the corridor had been made as the possible ground for future concessions to Poland.

"It is true that it is not easy to hold Socialist meetings in Russia just now, but our need for labor is so great that we will welcome young and energetic immigrants, even if they do hold different shades of opinion," said the Russian commissioner in reply to a question about political restrictions. He added that he believed Socialist workers would find themselves better treated in Russia than in the U. S. Some of the Americans, M. Kamaneff said, "held views even more extreme than those of the Soviet leaders."

"Your American deportees would be better off and more popular if they were not so radical," he continued, smiling.

The Russian would make no prediction as to the outcome of the Russo-Polish conference at Minsk, but said that there would be an obstacle if the Poles accepted the French view.

Came Home to Die.

"Three years ago I came home thinking I was 2 or 3 weeks would be my limit to live. I had suffered for 15 years from colic attacks and severe liver and stomach trouble. I happened to see an advertisement of May's Wonderful Remedy and purchased a bottle at the drug store and after taking the first dose, I felt better than I had for 15 years. I am now in the best of health—thanks to May's Wonderful Remedy. It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and always the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at Summers Drug Store and druggists everywhere.—adv."
